I like movies. When I was younger, I used to go to the movies about four times a week. When I was in elementary school, I even used to ride my bike to the movie theater in Nagoya, boxed lunch in hand, and spend all day inside the theater. All of these movies that I watched when I was younger are reflected in my manga. When coming up with a story or sequence for a manga, I often think of it as a movie sequence, which helps my pencil to flow with ideas. Ahhh, the good 'ol days...

—Akira Toriyama, 1991

Artist/writer Akira Toriyama burst onto the manga scene in 1980 with the wildly popular Dr. Slump, a science fiction comedy about the adventures of a mad scientist and his android "daughter." In 1984 he created his hit series Dragon Ball, which ran until 1995 in Shueisha's bestselling magazine Weekly Shonen Jump, and was translated into foreign languages around the world. Since Dragon Ball, he has worked on a variety of short series, including Cowa!, Kajika, Sand Land, and Neko Majin, as well as a children's book, Toccio the Angel. He is also known for his design work on video games, particularly the Dragon Warrior RPG series. He lives with his family in Japan.

STORY AND ART BY
AKIRA TORIYAMA

THE MAIN CHARACTERS

Bulma
Goku's oldest friend, Bulma is a scientific genius. She met Goku while on a quest for the seven magical Dragon Balls which, when gathered together, can grant any wish.

Son Goku
The greatest martial artist on Earth, he owes his strength to the training of Kame-Sen'nin and Kaiô-sama, and the fact that he's an alien Saiyan. To get even stronger, he has trained under 100 times Earth's gravity.

The Great Elder
The oldest living Namekian, its children include Dende and Nail. It created Namek's Dragon Balls in the same way that Kami-sama (Piccolo's twin) created Earth's Dragon Balls, and they are bound to its life force.

Son Gohan
Goku's four-year-old son, a half-human, half-Saiyan with hidden reserves of strength. He was trained by Goku's former enemy Piccolo.

Kuririn
Goku's former martial arts schoolmate.

The Ginyu Force

Freeza

The ruthless emperor and #1 landowner of the universe. He wants to use the seven Dragon Balls to wish for immortality.

Freeza

Nail

A Namekian warrior who serves the Great Elder. It challenged Freeza to a fight, but found itself totally outmatched.

Nail

The Ginyu Force

A team of five super-powered mercenaries from across the galaxy. From top to bottom: Butta (deceased), Reacoom (deceased), Captain Ginyu (in his own body), Jheese, and Gurd (deceased).

Vegeta

The evil Prince of the Saiyans. While on Earth, he inadvertently caused Earth's Dragon Balls to be destroyed. Now he has betrayed his former master Freeza to get Namek's Dragon Balls for himself.

Vegeta

Son Goku was Earth's greatest hero, and the Dragon Balls—which can grant any wish—were Earth's greatest treasure. When Vegeta attacked Earth to steal them, Goku and his friends managed to fend him off, but many lives were lost in the process. In search of a way to wish their friends back to life, Bulma, Gohan and Kuririn went to planet Namek, where the Dragon Balls were originally made—only to find the planet under attack by both Vegeta and Freeza! Our heroes were forced to team up with Vegeta against their common enemy, and Goku arrived on Namek in a separate spaceship just in time to save everyone from the Ginyu Force, Freeza's elite troops. But now Captain Ginyu has used his body-snatching power to exchange bodies with Goku!
